

BROYCE CONTROL LTD Timeline and History

BROYCE CONTROL ENGINEERING

25 Year
Milestone

50 Year
Milestone

1963

Broyce Control Engineering is formed and begins with the manufacturing of control panels for large industrial applications

1970

Company moves premises due to increase in demand and need for more space

1978

Change in company direction introduces plug-in sockets, timers and control relays

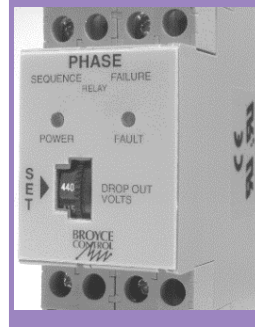

1985

Company name changed to Broyce Control Ltd.

1988

Introduction of new "M Series" (modular) range of DIN rail mount, products available in 17.5, 35 and 52.5mm widths

1990

Broyce Control begins exhibiting in the Middle East

2003

Launches new range of Earth Leakage Relays and Toroids

2013

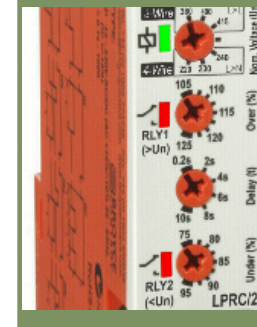

Broyce Control celebrates a 50-year milestone.

Company logo is revamped and modernised

2014

New L-Series range of products (and housing) introduced to replace older "M-Series" "L-Series" name chosen since "L" is 50 in roman numerals tying in with the age of the company

2015

Access to Technology hub. Research and Development centre opened in Ely, Cambridgeshire

2017

Currently exploring innovative technologies and applications including NFC...

